WHAT ARE WE?

SouthWest Ohio and Neighboring Libraries (SWON Libraries) Media Resources Division is a group of educational institutions in the Greater Cincinnati area that have combined resources to build an educational DVD, laserdisc, and videotape collection.

The collection is housed at Northern Kentucky University's Steely Library, and circulated via courier to member institutions for up to a seven-day loan period.

Faculty and staff at member Media Resources Division institutions who wish to use materials from the collection may search for materials via an online catalog and then request them.
