

What are Homebound Services?

Boone County Public Library's Homebound Services Program brings library materials to you at home when you are unable to visit the library. We also visit nursing homes, senior apartments, retirement homes and other residential care situations.

Are the services free?

Yes! Homebound delivery is provided free of charge.

Who is eligible?

Any Boone County resident, regardless of age, who is unable to visit the library due to a temporary or permanent physical limitation or lack of transportation may receive homebound delivery.

How does it work?

You tell us what types of books and/or other materials you want and we select items for you according to your interests.

You may also request specific titles, authors or subjects in person, from our on-line catalog (www.bcpl.org), or by telephone at 859-342-BOOK (2665), extension 8104.

Books and other materials will be delivered and picked up every month.

How do I arrange a visit?

Interested Boone County residents or their caregivers should contact Homebound Delivery Services at 859-342-BOOK (2665), extension 8505, send an email to homebound@bcpl.org, or fill out the request for more information on the back of this brochure and send it to any library location.

What can I borrow?

- Regular and large print books: fiction and non-fiction for all ages
- Magazines
- Books-on-tape, books-on-CD and Playaways (a new type of audiobook)
- Music CDs
- Videotapes and DVDs

We deliver - and it's free!
